

GRAVEL

MAY 17-19, 2019
DUFUR, OREGON

THE RIGHT KIND OF GRIND

The return of Gravel lands in Dufur, Oregon for our overnight camp. We'll be cruising a combination of gravel and paved roads, with wide-open views of Mt. Hood, Mt. Adams and other Cascade Peaks appearing around nearly every corner.

DAY 1

This route takes us into the foothills leading towards Mt. Hood and along miles of high plateau grasslands that quickly turn to forest.

LONG 65.3 miles — 5064 ft of climbing
47% gravel/53% pavement

SHORT 31.8 miles — 2140 ft of climbing
67% gravel/33% pavement

DAY 2

High plateaus and rolling wheat fields lend the setting for spectacular panoramas that get better around every turn.

LONG 63 miles — 5216 ft of climbing
53% gravel/47% pavement

SHORT 33.2 miles — 3118 ft of climbing
61% gravel/39% pavement
